

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are deeply saddened by the news of the recent passing of L.W. “Lew” Maddox, of Clarkton, Missouri; and

Whereas, a former Missouri statesman, Lew Maddox will be publically memorialized on June 28, 2008, at the 3rd Annual Southeast Missouri Democrat Rally in Dexter, Missouri; and

Whereas, Lew Maddox was the founder of Maco Construction and was well known and respected for his community service, which included the participation on numerous committees and boards for the Shriners and Free and Accepted Masons, as well as his service as an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church in Clarkton; and

Whereas, Lew Maddox served in the Missouri House of Representatives from 1970 to 1988, during which time he held offices such as chairman of the Legislative Research Committee, vice chairman of the Commerce Committee, and as a member of the Agri-Business and State Institutions and Property committees; and

Whereas, known for his zest for life, keen sense of humor, passion for his legislative responsibilities, and positive outlook, Lew Maddox served as an inspiration to all those fortunate enough to have known him; and

Whereas, Lew Maddox will be long and well remembered by his wife, Rebecca Irene Maddox; their children, Jeanne Maree Bailey and her husband, Phillip, of Hot Springs, Arkansas, John Warren Maddox and his wife, Candi, of Malden, Missouri, James Kendall Maddox and his wife, Francis, of Clarkton, and LuAnn Jeffries and her husband, Jerry, of Naylor, Missouri; nine grandchildren; and twelve great-grandchildren:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, extend our deepest and most sincere condolences of the family of Lew Maddox on this sad occasion; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the family of L.W. “Lew” Maddox.
